COMPANY STRENGTHS: “Our firm is diverse in thought and execution, and we are very good at what we do. But, a lot of lawyers say things like that. Beyond excellent work in the office and court, we put client service first by charging lower than market rates, offering flat fee or contingency relationships when it makes sense, and not billing our clients for calls, faxes, postage or local travel. Our firm is also in the process of automating much of the firms back office to improve our response time to client communications and work product delivery (with those savings being passed on to our clients). Because most of our clients are Arizona based businesses and individuals, we are also deeply tied to Arizona’s communities.”
